

I think that Qwest should continue to be required to give access to all independent ISPs because I wish to be able to use the ISP of my choice. If Qwest is allowed to disenfranchise independent ISPs then the price that Qwest will increase and service will decrease. I think that all other forms of high speed internet should be given similar regulations, including Cable etc. Free enterprise always works better.